

“Code of Conduct Agreement”

College Station Hoops is a Non-Profit 501(c) Corporation dedicated to the advancement of our youth in the areas of Education, Life Skills & Teamwork through Basketball. College Station Hoops will be holding events in all three areas throughout the year. The principle behind the enforcement of this code is to maintain a positive experience for College Station Hoops members during such events.

Coaches:

- Abide by all College Station Hoops facility rules at all times.
- Play the best players in games to win, use the bench as needed for winning and for training purposes.
- When teaching & coaching; set a positive example for coaches, players & fans to follow.
- Accept & embrace the responsibility of representing the College Station Hoops Organization in a positive manner.
- Respect the judgment of officials. Let College Station Hoops take up any arguments with officials or leagues.

- Under no circumstances; make derogatory remarks or gestures to players, coaches, parents, officials or event

Players:

- Abide by all College Station Hoops facility rules at all times.
- Treat other players, parents & coaches with respect.
- Accept & embrace the responsibility of representing the College Station Hoops Organization in a positive manner.
- Respect the judgment of the officials. Let College Station Hoops take up any arguments with officials or leagues.
- Do not bait or taunt opponents or opposing fans in the stands.
- Under no circumstances; make derogatory remarks or gestures to players, coaches, parents, officials or event

Spectators:

- Remember that the College Station Hoops members are children and are playing for their enjoyment, not yours.
- Abide by all College Station Hoops and facility rules at all times.
- Accept & embrace the responsibility of representing the College Station Hoops Organization in a positive manner.
- Respect the judgment of the officials. Let College Station Hoops take up any arguments with officials or leagues.
- Do not coach or critique from the stands. Enjoy the event and let the coaches be coaches.
